

Trainee Team Leader

Are you ready to start an exciting career path in a successful and expanding company?

IKEA offers within retail a Trainee Program to become Team Leader. We are looking for future leadership talents who want to join this fantastic development journey.

What does "Trainee Program the IKEA way" mean?

During the Trainee Program you will

- lead a small group of people and you are fully responsible for your own area already from the beginning
- be supported and coached by experienced managers
- pass a well founded training program with strong link to the job
- take an active part in the trainee program to become Team Leader
- participate the traineeship in one of our stores where the trainee program is offered
- after 12 months traineeship take over a Team Leader function in a store

What should you bring along? You

- enjoy success and challenges
- have a lot of energy and want to move something
- have a passion for home furnishing
- like the retail business and enjoy satisfied customers
- seek constantly for business opportunities
- are able to learn fast
- are open and trust people
- like to work in a team
- have the courage to make mistakes and learn out of them
- have good analytical skills and the ability to solve problems
- want to work on the shop floor and not be stuck in an office
- like to lead people
- seek for your own development and the development of co-workers
- have the potential for a following career step after the Team Leader position
- communicate fluently in English and one of the local languages (German, French, or Italian)
- are mobile to move and work in different parts of Switzerland

How can you apply?

→ Only online

- www.IKEA.ch/trainee
- Apply in the local language of the store or in English
- The next application phase will be beginning of October 2016. You will find our job posting on www.IKEA.ch/jobs

Most people see a watering can.
We see you growing in your own way.

